King Charles Coronation: London
Westminster Abbey 06 May 2023

An open book with Hebrew text, likely a Bible, is shown from a top-down perspective. The pages are yellowed with age. A bright, glowing light emanates from the center of the book, creating a lens flare effect. The text on the pages is in Hebrew. The background is dark and out of focus.

That you guard this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, until the appearing of our Adonai Yahusha Ha'Mashiach: Which in his times he shall show, who is the blessed and only Potentate, King of kings, and Yahuah Adonai; Who only has immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man has seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen. TIMOTHEUS RI'SHON (1 TIMOTHY) 6:14-16 תאֶפְהֵר

Appointed Lord President of the Council and Leader of the House of commons who lost out being voted Prime Minister to Rishi Sunak. Note here dress and head attire embossed with Laurel Leaves.

The Chrism oil with which The King & The Queen Consort were anointed was previously consecrated in The Church of the Holy Sepulchre and from the 'Mount of Olives' in Jerusalem in March.

The oil is stored within the Ampulla and cast in the form of an eagle which poured out of the beak.

The eagle is both Roman and Masonry symbology, symbolizing power & authority

We are told this portion of the veiled coronation symbolizes the monarch's divine right to the throne, away from the public eye. Actually its a ritual away form the public eye.

Behind the screen with the golden spoon Charles was anointed on his head, chest and hands

So why hide this? Such actions invite speculation, especially knowing they are part of the 13 bloodline families and for centuries involved at the highest level of Freemasonry.

So its not unreasonable to question its masonic nature as a ritual

The Banner says “All shall be well in all manner of thing shall be well” What does this mean?

And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret. Ephesians 5: 11-12 ἠΣCEPHER

The ceremony was one of many faiths & languages to mark the new king as a unifying head in the UK. This is the first time a monarch was crowned in a ceremony which included participation of faiths other than the Church of England.

Buddhist, Hinds, Muslim, Jew, Russian orthodox & Sikh faith leaders took part in various parts of the coronation.

The Archbishop's representative described it as an act of Christian worship that reflected contemporary society. Charles wanted the ceremony to represent all of the UK's backgrounds and faiths.

The Coronation of Their Majesties
KING CHARLES III & QUEEN CAMILLA

By Command of The King
the Earl Marshal is directed to invite to be present at the Abbey Church of Westminster on the 6th day of May 2023

The Coronation was on May Day and a English folk custom. The holiday is associated with pagan fertility & prosperity.

Question is – why is this the decorative symbolism on a royal coronation invitation?
